

Summit of the Americas

In this committee we will discuss the instability in Latin America as a result of the current economical crisis. Your goal as representatives from your countries is to find solutions to this matters. Cooperation from all the American countries is necessary in order for the region to prosper.

Topic A: Deteriorating Economy and Financial Instability in Latin America

Affected by Current Crisis and Recession: The economy has become unstable over the last few years due to the current crisis and recessions of Latin American countries. Most of the countries have been struggling and trying to improve their financial stability. However, they have also experienced remarkable changes such as economic growth and social progress. For this topic, we encourage delegates to focus on the role your country plays in Latin America as an economic, social and cultural block.

Topic B: Prosperity with Equity: South-South and other stronger Cooperation ties in the Americas: South-South Cooperation is a term used to describe the mutual relationship between countries in development also known as countries of the global south and the way they help each other economically, socially and politically. It also refers to the mutual sharing and exchange of technology, knowledge and resources between them. We urge delegates to ideate possible strategies for an inclusive economical and social growth.

In order for this debate to be enriching and dynamic we need you, delegates, to remember that it is important for you to be completely aware of the actual situation in your countries related to the topics that you are going to debate. For the debate to have a full successful development we wish and expect that all the delegates who are participating demonstrate a full amount of respect, sincerity and diplomacy while all sessions are happening. We are looking forward to meet you.
